Delinquent Reminder Notices Released: Property Tax Bills Overdue 38,000 taxpayers late on payments

San Diego County Treasurer-Tax Collector Dan McAllister announced today his office has started mailing 38,343 delinquent reminder notices to taxpayers who failed to pay one or both installments of their 2015-2016 secured property taxes.

Taxpayers late on their payments have incurred a 10% late fee and a $10 cost redemption fee. On Thursday, June 30, 2016, taxpayers who still have unpaid bills will accrue an additional penalty of 1.5% per month or 18% per year. The total amount due on the delinquent accounts is $91.7 million.

“The good news is delinquencies are down 4.8% this year compared to last,” said McAllister. “We want to make sure taxpayers with unpaid bills don’t end up owing even more after June.”

To pay their bills conveniently, taxpayers should use the mobile-friendly online payment system at sdtreastax.com. There, they can also sign up for free e-notifications by email so they never miss a future property tax deadline.

The County Treasurer-Tax Collector’s Office sent out 986,858 annual secured property tax bills to property owners last September. So far, 98.29% of the total secured charges have been collected. Payments are due in two equal installments: on Nov. 1 (delinquent after Dec. 10) and Feb. 1 (delinquent after April 10.)
